From the Editors:

I was looking for the swap meets for 2016 but only January was available so I will keep my eye out to see if I can get a list with all the proposed swap meets for 2016. I am going to attempt and revamp the magazine over the next few editions. Unsure how exactly but maybe a bit more colour for those who receive it via email, maybe a bit of an updated layout...not sure but I shall ask my geeky sons what they reckon :o) Might start doing a Bio on some members.

Karen and I went and saw The Martian, in Canberra yesterday...not a bad movie but a bit slow in the middle...worthwhile watching. I also got the Morris onto H plates. Nothing much else happening. Finally got Karen's garden shed up. The box said the easiest shed to put together ever....as if! Took me 7 hours to build the panels and then a further 7 hours to erect it. Only some of the pre drilled holes lined up ...and after assuring Karen that I did follow the instruction, which I actually did, I referred to the best invention by human kind...tech screws...wonderful things. Shed then went together like a dream...so do not believe the box and make sure you have tech screws :o)

Could everyone that has an ad in our classified please let me know if the ad is still current...thanks.

Angus and Karen

Joke of the month:

The children had all been photographed, and the teacher was trying to persuade them each to buy a copy of the group picture.

'Just think how nice it will be to look at it when you are all grown up and say, 'There's Jennifer, she's a lawyer,' or 'That's Michael, He's a doctor.'

A small voice at the back of the room rang out, 'And there's the teacher, she's dead.'
